History of Furoshiki

Japanese people have been sharing their cultural of wrapping from time immemorial.

In a historical point of view, we can find the original idea of Furoshiki in Heian Period, about 1,100 years ago.
Emperor's possessions were wrapped by a cloth to prevent its imperial atmosphere.
This culture took root in general and Furoshiki has been using as an essential item for their life.

The meaning of some comes from used to wrap both
and it started to be called "Furoshiki" since Edo period.
Gradually, it was used for the case of business, traveling,
and celebration.

It is a kind of combination and artistic consciousness of Japanese people that people use patterns with wisdom
for someone and spontaneously we learned patterns and culture of Furoshiki.

Size and purpose

A Furoshiki comes in different sizes, and you can choose the size depending on what need to wrap.
